

Resources: Action

- A Rocha's Wild Christian network group. 'Journey together, reflecting biblically and acting boldly'
- Operation Noah is a Christian charity working with the Church to inspire action on the climate crisis
- Green Christian is a community of Christians from all backgrounds and traditions caring for Creation through prayer, living simply, public witness, campaigning and mutual encouragement
- Christian Climate Action is a community of Christians supporting each other to take meaningful action in the face of the climate crisis
- Hope for the Future is a climate charity which works to equip communities, groups and individuals across the country to communicate the urgency of climate change with their local politicians
- Low Carbon Cambridge is a network of over 40 groups committed to seeing Cambridge become a low-carbon City
- Recycle Now seeks to inform and help people steward their waste, with lots of ideas and tips, plus information on what each local council recycles
- The Faith for the Climate Network is a space for people of faith working on climate change to come together, learn from one another, encourage and support one another in our faith-based work on climate change